helped. In attendance also was the Board of Health Chairman Lionel Cloutier and members of the State Department of Public Health.

Health Agent James Abare said he met today with the School Department, Police, Fire, Town Manager and people from The Winchendon School to discuss plans and concerns of the possible outcome of the Corona Virus affecting the town. He said they went over the schools plans and also the state and federal updates. He stressed to wash your hands, stay at home if you are sick and comply with cough edicate. He said this is an evolving issue and will keep his eye on the situation as it resolves.

Keith Kent said he read the CDC updates and called the Mass Department of Public Health and in the United States the flu is more of a threat. He said you are more likely to get sick by the flu. at the time,
